

Brigidine College Newsletter

September 2013
Issue #15

Dear Parents,

Just a short newsletter to wish you a very happy break from the routine of getting your daughters to school. Included is an important notice about your details and ACARA. Please read this notice carefully. There are also a couple of opportunities for some interesting things to do in the girls' free time

Sincerely

Ms Kate Edmondson
Principal

YOUR DATA

The Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA), an agency of the Australian Government, has requested that Brigidine provide an updated background information about you and your child to ACARA as a part of the process of updating the My School website. As we do not provide family or student names to ACARA, we can assure you that the data provided will in no way identify either the student or the family.

Please access this link:

http://www.acara.edu.au/reporting/upcoming\_my\_school\_updates.htm for further information on ACARA, the My School website and the ACARA Privacy Notice which is provided in English as well as 21 other languages.

If you do not want this data to be provided to ACARA, please advise the Principal of this, either by email to Rachel Quirk at info@bcrandwick.catholic.edu.au or in writing to the school Principal by Friday 20 September 2013.
