DEAR PARENTS,

“Life is a series of natural and spontaneous changes. Don’t resist them; that only creates sorrow. Let reality be reality.” LAOZI

You may have noticed that building has commenced on the land which used to belong to Brigidine Convent. It is the very last of the gardens and grounds that the nuns bought in 1901 as the Daintry estate. Brigidine College and Brigidine House sit on a handkerchief piece of land compared to the tennis courts and gardens and “pitch” that used to be attached to the school and which figures so much in the memories of the ex students. I understand that the aged care facility which is being built is to be called "The Grove". This is a reference to the gardens where the elderly Sisters used to play as little girl boarders and about which I have heard many stories. Those shrubs were all bulldozed about a fortnight ago and it was a great sadness for me and for so many other staff members especially the ex students on staff. The diggers are there digging a mighty hole for the car park and foundations. No doubt we will have a building site for a neighbour for the next couple of years. I wonder what it will feel like in the future to be at Brigidine when a multi storied building dominates over our beautiful Moreton Bay Figs.

In keeping with the changing times, on Monday night I went to Brigidine St Ives for the launch of Kildare Ministries. This is a group sanctioned by the Church which will take responsibility for the works of the Brigidine Sisters. The group is made up of lay women and religious sisters and, as well as guiding the Brigidine schools in Australia, will also care for the organisations owned by the Victorian Presentation Sisters. Brigidine Randwick will continue to be leased to the Sydney Catholic Education Office however we will remain firmly connected to our heritage through a strong relationship with Kildare Ministries. Setting up Kildare Ministries has been a lot of work for the Brigidines and there was deep joy there on Monday night as they know that they have provided a future for the work of Brigidine women over two hundred years.
Another daughter to come to Brigidine?
Sisters of girls presently in the school have priority of enrolment. Parents do though have to go through the application process. Ask your daughter to pick up an application form from the Brigidine Office. All applications for enrolment at Brigidine in 2015 must be at the school by Monday 28th April 2014.

FROM THE ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
End of Term
All students are expected to attend every day over the next week. Students will have normal school days and Year 12 students are in their final week of their Half-Yearly Exams. Next term begins on Tuesday the 29th of April and students are expected to return in their winter uniform. Winter uniforms should be checked for size and length so any alterations or adjustments that are needed can be made well in advance.

eDiary
The College will be moving progressively to the use of an eDiary from Term 2 onwards. The eDiary requires that we have up to date parent email addresses so you can access your daughter’s eDiary. I would ask all parents to ensure the College has your updated email address. If you are unsure, please contact the College office. If you do not receive an electronic version of this newsletter, please ring the College and provide your email address.

SCHOOL SPECIAL BUSES
The College has had issues with several school specials this term and we are working with Sydney Buses to ensure all girls arrive home safely. If in the event that the school special does not stop at the College, we will always notify Sydney Buses. It is imperative that you also, as parents, call Sydney Buses on 13 15 00 to report the incident. Unfortunately, it is not until so many complaints are made that action is taken by Sydney Buses.

English
The English Department was very lucky to host Mr Michael Duffy on Tuesday 1 April for the Year 11 students. Mr Duffy is a journalist, publisher, editor and writer of crime fiction novels. Mr Duffy spoke to the girls about creative writing, commenting that it is possible for everybody and anybody to be creative. He advised the girls to separate the what from the how: to distinguish between what they were writing about (the content) and how they were going to convey that idea on the page (the mechanics of the story). We are grateful for his time and expertise.

Year 11 are currently writing short stories as part of their Area of Study: Women in Context. They are creatively representing a snapshot of a woman against the backdrop of the Traditional, Transitional or Contemporary era. As part of the process, students have been keeping an eye on what is happening around the world and in Australia via newspapers, TED talks, and current popular culture. Perhaps students could share their stories with the women in their families!

Mock Trial News
Our next Mock Trial will be held on Thursday 10th April at 4.15 at St Clare’s College Waverley. The trial should conclude at approximately 7.30. Students, family and friends wishing to attend to support the girls are most welcome.

Good luck girls!

YEAR 7 CAMP (from the students’ perspective)

On 13th March, Year 7 set off to Collaroy Centre to spend to unforgettable days bonding with one another and attempting challenges, courses and prodigious activities which included: encouraging each other and trust.

Our journey at Collaroy started with being informed about all the different expectations and fun that we were all going to experience. Our activity groups were assigned and that was when our first activity began. Group number 8 set off to the flying fox, while other groups were at: The Drop Pole, Laser Tag, Vertical challenge, Rock climbing, Giant Swing and Orienteering.

The Flying Fox was breathtaking as you were harnessed and attached to a lengthy rope; this held you up from the ground. The procedure for this activity was to drag a rope to the top of a couple of rocks. An instructor was situated at the top which connected you to the cable line. Once you were ready you would, jump off the platform and at wicked fast speed you would go flying 8 metres off the ground.

As all of our chosen activities required a harness, nearly the same procedures applied to all.

On Day 1 we attempted four activities and then meals followed. Soon, after a lengthy day we were all so tired but the games night and a Liturgy followed.

We headed for our cabins, got changed and headed up to the hall, where we gathered in groups and began the night. Games took our minds off family and the special moments we might be missing. Prayer followed and by then we were all pumped out of energy but....each cabin had an extravagant amount of lollies that were eaten during the night!

We were awoken at 6.30am and we knew that another day was ahead of us. Showers, brushing hair, washing faces and brushing teeth commenced after our bodies woke up again and breakfast was near.

All Year 7 were situated in the Auditorium where our next activities were called out. It was the beginning of another tiring day.

Later, lunch and the rest of our activities occurred and soon we were ready for room inspections and the departure from the Collaroy Centre.

After an extensive drive we finally arrived back to Randwick, where our beloved parents and family members were awaiting us.

To finalise, our two days at camp really made a difference. Thank you to Mrs Parsons and all the staff for making this an amazing experience for the start of Year 7. Thank you!

Corine Hanna
Year 7 Student

Last week, Year 7 went on a one night friendship camp to Collaroy centre. It was an absolutely amazing and thoroughly enjoyable camp. We all had such a great time doing the activities that were so exhilarating and very exciting. The camp was a great opportunity for all of us to connect with people and we all made new friendships that will last for life. The Year 7 camp was a terrific experience that I will cherish forever.

Natalia Waterson
Year 7 Student

Year 7 went to the Collaroy Centre for camp. When we arrived at Collaroy we split up into our activity groups. My first activity was the Drop Pole. All that I remember is everyone in my group, including me, looking up to see how high the never ending pole was. Only a few minutes later it was my turn to put on my harness. Off I went near the top wondering how I was going to get down. I slowly leaped of the step and down I went landing with my feet on the ground. As I was taking off my harness I said to my friends “that was fun”. As a result I had a great time at camp and I would like to thank Mrs Parsons for organising everything.

Mary Vouros
Year 7 Student

Collaroy Camp 2014 was one of the best experiences of my life; there were so many activities to do, like the Drop Pole, Flying fox, Giant Swing and so many more to enjoy. The best thing at camp was making new friends.

Cardinal Pell’s Farewell Mass
On Tuesday 25th March 2014, we (the year 8 SRC Leaders) attended the farewell mass for Cardinal Pell at St Mary’s Cathedral. We were fortunate enough to get the opportunity to experience his final Mass and hear some inspirational words about the four foundations of Catholicism. It was wonderful to be a part of the Catholic School Community with many other catholic students across Sydney attending.

When we arrived at the church, it was amazing to see such beautiful architecture in the church. Also, we were warmly welcomed by the choir, who were almost as good as our school choir. Together, they sounded brilliant and added to the atmosphere of being gathered as a community.

We appreciate the opportunity of attending this important occasion and being able to meet Cardinal Pell himself. We wish him all the best in his new role, helping the Pope in Italy.

CLOSE THE GAP EVENT

Indigenous All Stars V’s Brigidine All Stars

On Thursday 20 March at lunchtime in the Cullen Centre we held a Close the Gap Event: a friendly game of Netball.

We had a Team of Indigenous Students from Brigidine take on a Brigidine All Star Team. The players enjoyed themselves and the crowd was enthusiastic as well. We had music playing and the crowd was clapping and cheering. We had girls taking photos, giving out stickers and putting balloons and posters up.

I’d like to thank all girls who played and who took some part in the organisation of this very successful event.

Library Report
Antony Loewenstein, an Australian independent journalist with a strong social justice orientation, recently spoke to our Year 11 girls about the writing process and about professional experiences of relevance to their senior studies. A number of their Stage 6 modules require them to look at how an individual’s perspective on themselves and others is shaped and reshaped as they cross boundaries into new territories. The girls’ deep engagement with Antony’s perspectives on journalism was evident during question time.

In the last week of school, a number of our talented Year 9 girls will be participating in an ‘e-News’ workshop with input from Antony and members of the Brigidine College English staff. These workshoppers will be involved in the creation of the inaugural Brigidine College e-News publication, led by Ms Edwina Fairall, and the experience should be immensely enriching, honing participants’ creative, organisational and collaborative skills. This event is being sponsored and supported by the library as part of our commitment to multiple facets of Cultural Literacy. I am also a keen member of our English Department.

The line-up of articles for the first edition of Brigidine e-News, which will evaluate ties between social justice objectives and social media, looks very exciting! Our first publication will be launched very close to the end of Term 2 so watch this spot.

Dear Parents and Students,

The following message from Pope Francis for the Twenty-Ninth World You Day 2014 is well worth sharing and reading. Also below the Pope’s message is a flyer for a camp run by Catholic Youth Services for the coming holiday period.

Enjoy the reading and consider the camp option for your daughter.

MESSAGE OF POPE FRANCIS
FOR THE TWENTY-NINTH WORLD YOUTH DAY
2014

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven” (Mt 5:3)

Dear Young Friends,

How joyfully we read the wonderful news we hear in the Letter to the Hebrews for the Twenty-Ninth World Youth Day: It was a great celebration of faith and fellowship. The wonderful people of Brazil welcomed us with open arms, like the statue of Christ the Redeemer which looks down from the hill of Corcovado over the magnificent expanse of Copacabana beach. There, on the seafront, Jesus extended his call to each one of us to become his missionary disciples.

May we perceive this call as the most important thing in our lives and share this gift with others, today and tomorrow, even to the distant geographical and existential peripheries of our world.

The next stop on our international youth pilgrimage will be in Kraków in 2016. As a way of accompanying our journey together, for the next three years I would like to reflect with you on the Beatitudes found in the Gospel of Matthew (5:3-12). This year we will begin by reflecting on the first Beatitude: “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven” (Mt 5:3). For 2015 I suggest: “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God” (Mt 5:8); for 2016: “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy” (Mt 5:7).

1. The revolutionary power of the Beatitudes

It is always a joy to enter into the Beatitudes’ teaching. I remember the wonderful experience I had when I presided over a meeting in the presence of the island of Eilat. There was a very large crowd, so I went up on the mountain to teach his disciples. That is why it is written in the Gospel of Matthew: “The mountain is regarded as a place where God revealed himself. Jesus, by prayers at the Mount, revealed himself to be a divine teacher, a new Moses. What does he tell us? He shows us the way to life, the way that he himself has taken. Jesus himself is the way, and he proposes this way as the path to true happiness. Throughout his life, nine of his disciples in the presence of the crowd and his resurrection, Jesus embodied the Beatitudes. All the promises of God’s Kingdom were fulfilled in him.”

In proclaiming the Beatitudes, Jesus asks us to follow him and to share with him along the path of love, the path that leads to eternal life. It is not an easy journey, yet the Lord promised us and we shall not abandon us. Our Lord has already made it clear that in poverty, distress, humiliation, the struggle for justice, persecution, the difficulty of daily conversion, the effort to remain faithful to our call to holiness, and many others. But if we open the door to Jesus and allow him to be part of our lives, if we share our joys and sorrows with him, then we will experience the peace and joy that only God, who is infinite love, can give.

Year 10 Visual Arts Excursion

On Thursday the 20th of March, Year 10 Visual Arts Students visited the Art Gallery of NSW. In the gallery we attended 3 different exhibitions: ART EXPRESS, 19th Biennale of Sydney and Aboriginal and the Torres Strait Islander Gallery.

We first saw ART EXPRESS and here was a range of Year 12 HSC Students works on display. All works were inspiring and unique. Bodies of work included digital photography, paintings, drawings, ceramics and textiles. Every single piece of work was different and had different ideas behind it.

In the 19th Biennale of Sydney we had an unforgettable experience. The exhibition contained many interactive and digital artworks ranging from writing messages of forgiveness on walls to cinema style rooms screening different videos. Most artists here expressed perspectives of the world through sublime creations like Meriç Algün Ringborg’s Library of Unborrowed Books.

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Gallery explored the contributions Aboriginal and Torres Strait islanders have subsidized to our country today. Although we were unable take photographs, the memory of this exhibition is still very much clear in our minds as almost all representations were bright, colourful and intriguing.

The excursion was absolutely fantastic as we gained an extended knowledge of other people’s perspectives and feelings towards parts of society and themselves.

Year 9 Art Excursion to the Art Gallery of NSW

On the 24th March, year nine Visual Art classes went on an excursion to the Art Gallery of NSW.

The first exhibition we visited was Art Express. Here, was a selection of artworks from the 2013 HSC. There were many amazing artworks in many forms including, ceramics, photography, paintings, video and drawings. These artworks were innovative using interesting materials such as, glitter, ink, charcoal, clay, paper, latex, wood and even the simplest materials, such as pen and pencil. Many artworks had a strong conceptual practice. Students explored a variety of different ideas including religion, fear, society, music and beauty.

When we finished at Art Express we went to the Aboriginal Gallery. This gallery was dramatically different from the previous one and the artworks were very emotionally and spiritually moving. Some artists just used traditional colours, whereas other artworks were more modern, but all had stories behind them, making them captivating. We explored the artwork ‘Fruit Bats’ by Lin Onus, which explores how the indigenous people were forced into a new western lifestyle, when the Europeans settled here.

The last exhibition we went to see was the Biennale. This exhibition displayed the most contemporary and innovative artworks from around the world. The artworks all had their own message, which made you think and question the artist’s ideas and thoughts.

Everyone really enjoyed this experience and learnt a lot more about what art is and how it is perceived. Despite the rainy weather, we are all grateful for this wonderful opportunity!!

Thank you to Ms Brennan, Ms Smyth and Mr Scivetti.

Clancy Prize 2014
Last Friday night (21 March) I was awarded the Clancy Prize, Education Award for my HSC body of work. It was a great honour to be rewarded for my efforts throughout the year and especially by the renowned Clancy competition, held at the Australian Catholic University.

The theme for 2014 is a quote from St Francis of Assisi: "Be praised my lord for the gift of Life; for changing dusk and dawn; for touching scent and song." My collection of paintings is titled 'Horizon: where the earth meets the heavens', and is reflective of the omnipresence of God in nature. Inspired by artists Fred Williams, Robert Juniper and Danielle Bergstrom, my acrylic paintings express the iconic Australian landscape as a vibrant home that nurtures and sustains us. I am so proud and excited to have won this prize and to be a part of an event which celebrates the importance of both art and spirituality in our daily lives.

This week saw the leads of Hairspray running the big numbers with the dancers who have been busy rehearsing the choreography for the big finale.

Ms Foster has been working with the dancers, not only teaching them the moves but also getting them to think about their stage craft. She is been assisted by Kyra McMorrow who is turning out to be quite the choreographer!

Without love and You Can’t Stop The Beat have been the main focus for the vocalist this week and it has been lovely to hear the harmonies and rhythmic layers starting to click; there are some fantastically catchy tunes and everyone in the music department can be heard humming the tunes even when away from rehearsals.

Dear Principal,

Re: Official unveiling of the Fallen Lifesavers Memorial, Coogee Beach

I’m writing to inform you that Randwick City Council’s Fallen Lifesavers Memorial project is nearing completion, and will be officially unveiled on Sunday 27 April 2014.

I’d like to extend an invitation to local families to join us at this important event. I’d be grateful if you could pass on this invitation via your school’s newsletter.

Alley Surf Life Saving Club members served overseas in war and the Fallen Lifesavers Memorial at Coogee Beach is a tribute to their sacrifice. Please join us at Coogee Reserve from 10am on Sunday 27 April for the official unveiling, a memorial service and a tree planting. All welcome. For more information visit www.fallenlifesavers.com.au

The Memorial, which honours Australian Lifeguards who died in service, is being built on the southern end of Coogee Reserve at Coogee Beach (near the Coogee Surf Life Saving Club) and will be a place of reflection and remembrance. It is supported by all levels of government, the FLS and the surf life saving movement.

We are very pleased that Her Excellency Professor The Honourable Marie Bashir AC CVO, together with other dignitaries, will also be attending on 27 April.

The memorial utilises granite basalt columns and a large stainless steel sculpture by renowned sculptor Adam Stockwell and a garden setting area. There are also future plans for a wall listing the names of all Australian Fallen Lifeguards.

Should you require any additional information about the project, please visit www.fallenlifesavers.com.au. You can also download posters, flyers and digital material for use. Additionally, enclosed please find some flyers with further background information.

Thanks in advance for your support of this important project. I hope to see you and members of our local school community at the opening of the Fallen Lifesavers Memorial on Sunday 27 April.

Yours sincerely,

Scott Nissen

Alternative Schoolies Week exclusively for Sydney CEO Schools

Harvest INROADS in partnership with the Sydney Catholic Education Office, is proud to offer the graduating Class of 2014 the opportunity to mark the end of their schooling in a fun yet meaningful way.

Motivated by the negative images we see every year of celebrations on the Gold Coast, we decided to create a viable alternative for students.

This alternative is the opportunity to travel to Fiji where students can unwind, relax, enjoy the attractions of this island paradise while also having the opportunity to get involved with the locals and make a real difference. Based on the highly successful model of the Rio World Youth Day mission projects, “Schoolies” will be immersed in local culture and work alongside community partners, on established and ongoing service projects. Please note: Under 18’s are welcome to join the Harvest INROADS experience as it is strictly ALCOHOL DRUG and TOBACCO FREE.

Activities during the Schoolies Experience will include:

- Helping with various building and infrastructure projects within the nearby villages.
- Teaching English to primary school students alongside their teachers.
- Preparing traditional meals with the women of the village and delivering them to families in need.

In partnership with the Sydney CEO, Harvest INROADS is offering a program which is reserved exclusively for your students. The details are as follows:

- Where: Fiji
- When: 22 - 29 Nov 2014
- How much: $2280 including roundtrip international airfare from Sydney
- This experience is strictly alcohol, drug and tobacco free

What’s on April school holidays:

Warhammer 40k: a table-top gaming intro
Monday 14 April 2014, Margaret Martin Library, 2pm - 4pm
FREE Ages 12-18 years (and 11 year olds currently enrolled in year 7)
Come and paint a Games Workshop “40k” miniature and learn how to play the table-top miniatures game. All materials supplied by Games Workshop.

Dungeons & Dragons Epic
Tuesday 15 April, 10.30am - 4.00pm, Bowen Library
Ages 12 - 25 years  Cost: $7.50 for library members, $10 for non-members (library membership is free)
Total rookie and experienced players are invited to an all-day event with prizes for lunch. Prizes may be awarded for the best ‘Play of the Day’. Both 4th edition and Pathfinder games are being run, but there are limited places in both.

Creative Writing Workshop
Wednesday 16 April, 2.30pm - 4.30pm, Margaret Martin Library
Ages 12-19 years (and 11 year olds currently enrolled in year 7) Free
Do you want to unleash your creativity and improve your writing skills for the Lionel Bowen Young Writers Award?
Local creative writing lecturer and recently published author Candice Fox will host a fun and hands-on creative writing workshop. Learn tips to get a story flowing and hear about the road to becoming published. If you have a story in the works bring it along to get some practical advice.

Clay Figurines
Wednesday 23 April, 2.00pm - 3.30pm, Margaret Martin Library
Ages 10-19 years  Cost: $5.50
Learn how to form your own Magiday figurines. Make some ninja, pirate, superman or ... you decide.
