Dear Parents,

I first heard about the Armenian genocide in 1974 as a young uni. student. The Armenian genocide was the systematic annihilation of Armenians by the Ottoman Government during World War One. Between one and five million people died without help and in the silence of a world without the kind of communication forms we have today. By the 1970s this holocaust was receiving attention and the discussion was largely about why little was known of the Armenian genocide when so much was known of the genocide of the Jews in World War Two. This morning I know that there are hundreds of thousands of Iraqi minorities held up on Mount Sinjar in the ranges of Northern Iraq. This includes thousands of Christians who have fled what was the entirely Christian town of Qaroqosh which normally has a population of 50,000. Also on the mountain, that has no water or food, are the Yazidi refugees who have come from all over Iraq. The Yizidi, I know from research, practice a religion indigenous to ancient Persia. There are also Islamic minorities. Basically then, anyone who has a different idea about how a life is lived from the Islamic State Militants.

These are some facts that help me grasp the situation but I really have no understanding of why this is happening and importantly, no knowledge of the details and subtleties of human behaviour that leads to this kind of cruelty. Perhaps in a militant mindset the idol being worshipped is the desire to Be Right without any allowance for freedoms which are natural to healthy human beings. One of the reasons for the growth of Nazism during the Second World War was a strong sense of humiliation in the German people because of the defeat in World War One and the insistence by the victorious nations that Germany not only pay for the cost of the war, but make itself powerless as well. When Hitler came along, so sure of himself, it looked like he was a strong leader and Germany could be great again. Perhaps, after the invasion of Western armies, similar powerful feelings exist in the Islamic State Militarists as they seek to create a powerful Iraq in their own image. I am clueless about it all and yet I must surmise; at least to have some understanding assists me with the terrible helplessness that accompanies living in the present.
Yesterday the Brigidine girls came wearing black as a sign of our participation in the National Day of Mourning for those who lost their lives on MH17. It is good for the girls to do something that connects them to the world as it is and makes their adolescent world a little larger. Mrs Day prepared a special prayer for the school and at lunch time a good number of girls went to St Anne’s to pin a ribbon onto the memorial board that Ms Chaloner had prepared. We hold on in faith to the belief that assisting the girls to be sensitive to others by knowing their story, and to grow as self-reflective people, does make a difference and is doing something very positive in the world for peace. I say “in faith” because the girls of Brigidine are a long way from the children on Mount Sinjar and to the rational eye, it looks like we are achieving nothing. In faith, we are achieving everything. When Jesus came to the cross, it was like he said “the old hatreds die with me, the cruelty stops with me” We need to believe it and live it individually, now. May hearts made hard be softened and may the human family find a way to help those undergoing persecution in Iraq.

May Brigid Bless the House Wherein you dwell

Student Portal
All students in Years 7 – 11 now have access to the Student Portal. Students can access their timetable and the daily notices both at school and at home.

Parent Portal
Parents now have access to the Parent Portal, which looks much like the Student Portal. I encourage you to register for this if you have not done so already. Please take some time to familiarise yourself with the portal and take note that you now have access to your daughter’s attendance pattern for the year thus far. The attendance section is interactive and if you hover over the individual boxes it will tell you whether your daughter was late, present all day, sick or on school business. Please note that the Portal merely allows you to view information on your daughter such as her timetable, attendance and activities.

The portal will be used to relay information regarding whole school messages such as cancellation of swimming carnivals etc... and to distribute the school newsletter. If you require help with the portal please email Michael Rawlings at michael.rawlings@syd.catholic.edu.au

Student Illness
I ask parents to keep their daughters home if they are too ill to attend school. Too many girls are presenting at the front office as sick throughout the day and we just cannot accommodate them nor do we have the staffing to constantly ring parents to collect their daughters. I encourage all parents to send their daughters to school if the girls have a slight headache or other pains/cramps, but please provide them with the paracetamol they require for the day. As of Term 4, the office will no longer hand out paracetamol to the girls unless it is an emergency.

Uniform Policy
Just a reminder that the girls must wear their blazer to and from school every day unless they have sport that day.

Girls are not to wear hoodies, or jumpers that are not part of the uniform. Likewise, multiple earrings, nose rings, nail polish and makeup are not to be worn. Girls will receive a lunch detention and will be required to either remove the earring, the nail polish and/or makeup at school.

In wet weather, girls are allowed to wear a plain navy or green spray jacket. This jacket must be completely free of advertising/logos etc... Big W and Target all sell plain spray jackets with no logos.

Girls should also own the whole tracksuit. On cold days the girls are wearing a jumper with the track pants. They need to track suit top as well.

We appreciate your support as parents in this matter and ask that you ensure your daughter is in the correct uniform before she leaves home.

SPORT AWARDS 2014
I would like to invite all parents and relatives to attend the Annual Sport Awards. At this ceremony we recognise the achievements of outstanding sports women and teams within the school over the past year.

It will be held in the Cullen Centre on Tuesday 26\textsuperscript{th} August 11.30am-12.45pm.

Mrs Kate Elder

Natalie Melis in Year 10
Natalie will be shortly training and then competing in the FIS (International Ski Federation) races at Buller, Thredbo and Hotham. Good results could place her in the Australian junior team. She is currently ranked 4th and the top three are selected.

Mrs Laura Melis
Proud Year 10 Mum
Sacramental Program/Music Ministry

Last Sunday saw the confirmation of three Brigidine students at Sunday evening Mass at Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church, Randwick. Two Year 7 students, Hannah Plenzich and Madison Saena and a Year 8 Student Aimee Simmonds were confirmed after attending the Sacramental Program being run at the school since the middle of last term. On the Tuesday before, Aimee had been baptised and was attended by her Year 8 Aquinas roll call group.

The confirmation was officiated by Father Peter Hearn Parish Priest at OLSH and was a most beautiful and uplifting ceremony especially for our confirmants. This was a beautiful meeting of two special ministries in the school: our Music Liturgy Group and Sacramental Program. Our Music Liturgy Group consisted of Poppy Aldous, Jaynell Vila both of Year 11; Chiara Harbutt, Naomi Little both of Year 9; Erika Vallejera and Angelica Queyquep both of Year 8 who all sang like angels. Our musicians were Jennifer Hoe Year 11, Holly Lockhart and Andrea Jacenyik (Year 9). Brett Adamson the Brigidine Guitar tutor and the Hoe Family also assisted with the accompaniment for the Mass.

We were extremely blessed to have Brother James Maher msc who sang and played keyboard for the Mass. The students were especially excited as they were performing one of Brother James’ songs that evening. I would also like to acknowledge our Year 7 Coordinator, Adriana Parsons who not only assisted with the Sacramental Program, but was also a sponsor for Madison Saena of Year 7.

Once again, it’s very encouraging to see these two programs complementing each other and working hand in hand to support the growth of our faith and spirituality.

NAIDOC Week 2014

NAIDOC Week Assembly:
On Tuesday 15\textsuperscript{th} July we held our NAIDOC Assembly. The boys from Champagnat Catholic College Pagewood came and danced for us.

NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia each July to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. NAIDOC is celebrated not only in Indigenous communities, but by Australians from all walks of life. The week is a great opportunity to participate in a range of activities and to support your local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.

NAIDOC originally stood for ‘National Aboriginal and Islanders Day Observance Committee’. This committee was once responsible for organising national activities during NAIDOC Week and its acronym has since become the name of the week itself.

Local community celebrations during NAIDOC Week are encouraged and often organised by communities, government agencies, local councils, schools and workplaces.

Upcoming events which the Indigenous students will be involved in are a volleyball game against Champagnat Catholic College Pagewood.

Library Report
Hooked on Books
The Brigidine College teaching staff embraces information technologies while continuing to foster students’ engagement in a reading culture. Ms Monica Jarman, the English Coordinator, is leading her department’s innovative integration of ICTs into new programs but takes time out to attend the Staff Book Club and write articles about Jane Austen for refereed journals, so the girls are very lucky to be benefiting from such a breadth of expertise. When I asked Monica about the books that helped to shape her as a reader she nominated the following:

‘Milly Molly Mandy by Joyce Lankester Brisley was a wonderful book for a young reader, as it supplemented fun written text with illustrations and maps. It brought to life for me little Milly Molly Mandy and her little family and her little adventures with her little friends in her little village in England. Milly Molly Mandy visited the sweetshop and the blacksmith and the haberdashers. She played with ‘little friend Susan’ and Billy Bunter and stayed overnight with her aunty. I source my love of English literature to my meeting with Milly Molly Mandy. The narrative poem The Rime of the Ancient Mariner by S. T. Coleridge provided another highly memorable reading experience, thanks to my Year 10 teacher, Mrs James. I remember being entranced by the language and the idea that one word or phrase could have more than one meaning or that meaning could be unresolved. This was one of my first introductions to the Gothic genre, of which I remain a fan. But, more importantly, I thought about being an English teacher for the first time – how fantastic to be able to talk about language and ideas all day! And now that is my job! Yay! Mrs Zanziotis, my favourite teacher throughout high school, suggested that we read other Austen works, and Persuasion was the first non-school Austen that I read and, much to my excitement, I got it! So I re-read Emma and Mansfield Park, and have been reading everything about Austen ever since.’

Doubtless Ms Jarman’s students will one day be reflecting on their formative experiences in her English classes.
There are many keen readers in our current group of Year 7s. Marcelle-Rita Zarzour’s top three picks are Divergent (along with the rest of the trilogy), I am Number 4 (along with the rest of the series) and Delirium (the first of a yet to be completed trilogy). Marcelle-Rita says of Divergent: ‘It is a marvellous dystopian book. It is basically about a girl who discovers her true ‘faction’. It has all the essential components of an excellent book, as does Delirium: adventure, loss, romance, conflict and excitement, to name a few. I am number 4 is my favourite book.’ Aside from the ever popular Hunger Games trilogy, Kate Hamilton recommends Michael Park’s Doppelganger for its ‘supernatural twist’.

Manga Bus
The Manga Bus recently pulled into the College and a number of girls took great pleasure in spending the school’s money on books of their choice. Natasha Rae from Year 7 reports: ‘I thought the Manga bus was great, with books ranging from encyclopaedias of animals to adventure chapter books. Not all of the books were Manga but lots were. It was a great experience for students to look at books of interest to them’. Natasha is another keen reader of dystopian fiction, nominating Taronga as her favourite book: ‘I love the interaction between the main character and the animals. Raja, the male lion, is always curious about Ben who has to face him.’
First Pick Book Club
Girls from Years Seven to Eleven dropped into First Pick Book Club to investigate and borrow a large range of new books. Quite of these books have been sourced from their recommendations or inspired by interests. Our girls are not shy about requesting book purchases and if the recommendations are appropriate, as they generally are, we try to meet these requests.

This year marks the commencement of an important Marcellin College initiative -- The Lionel Bowen Lecture Series. In creating this initiative, we seek to engage with leading figures in Australian society who have contributed significantly to the common good, and inspire others to emulate their example. The lecture series is a public event open to all in our Marist and Catholic secondary schools network.

This is what we want for the young men at Marcellin College -- a broadening of their view of the world; an acceptance that with their privileged upbringing they have a responsibility to be good citizens who contribute to the common good. These are the themes that the Lionel Bowen Lecture Series seek to explore.

The lecture series is named in honour of Mr Lionel Bowen, former Deputy Prime Minister of Australia and Old Boy of Marcellin College. Mr Bowen, who passed away in 2012, remains highly regarded for his significant contribution and service to the public at all levels of government.

I warmly invite you to join us for this special event. The inaugural lecture will be presented by Mr Jeff McMullen.
