Dear Parents,

This Sunday the reading at mass is the feeding of the five thousand. Looked at in a superficial and literal way this is a pretty improbable situation although I once heard an interpretation of this miracle that such was the effect of Jesus’ presence on the crowd that He was able to get a whole lot of people who had food for themselves hidden away to open their coats and to share with those in the crowd who had nothing.

Jesus didn’t invite this crowd to follow him. It was tagging along to be a part of the drama of “the signs that he was doing for the sick”. No plea comes from the crowd to be fed: Jesus sees their need and starts to solve the problem of how to feed so many because they are going to get hungry. A little boy comes forward with his five barley loaves and two fish and after Jesus blesses this food the people had “as much as they wanted” and “were satisfied”. The response of the crowd then is to make firm statements about Jesus’ identity “This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world” and Jesus fears that the crowd will take him by force, proclaim Him King and so he slips away up into the mountains by himself.

The crowd is in no state to be proclaiming Jesus King. The people in the crowd have no idea of what Jesus’ Kingship would really come to mean and it was simply a response to that human satisfaction that comes from getting what you want. Just like the happiness we have when everything works out our way or we have bought something that we really wanted. As soon as something doesn’t go right for us we’ll forget this satisfaction. In the story Jesus is proposing that we can become a part of something that is bigger than our need for gratification. If we want God to reign then we have to know our hunger to be for the eternal values of Justice and Truth and surrender to God’s ideas about how to make these values real.
On Wednesday of this week, fifteen Year Ten Brigidine students and a teacher attended the celebration of Daniel Delany Day at Delany College at Granville. The Patrician Brothers (founded by Daniel Delany a year after he founded the Brigidine Sisters) gathered together all the schools in the Patrician tradition and the girls from Randwick and St Ives. The girls report having had a wonderful day and have come home with the idea put forward on the day that all the Patrician and Brigidine students pay $1 for the privilege of having schooling when other young people of their age are denied it. The money will go to the funds being gathered by the Patrician Brothers to build a school in Ghana. The Patricians remain faithful to Delany’s vision of providing an education for the dispossessed and powerless.

May Brigid bless all you do to make good things happen in our world.

College Jacket
The College is offering the girls the opportunity to purchase a jacket that is both warm and waterproof. The jacket is navy and will have the school crest on it. The girls may come to the uniform shop on a Monday to have a look at the jacket and try it for size. Students are required to order and pay for the jacket upfront. Please be aware that the jacket will not take the place of the College blazer. The jacket can only be worn on rainy days. The Jacket will cost $60.

Updating information
If you have moved recently, changed your email or phone number please contain the front office to notify us of the changes.

Reminder: Absences and providing notes for being late to school
The government has recently changed the guidelines around attendance at school. If your daughter is absent from school due to illness or late to school because she has been at a medical appointment, you must provide a medical certificate to justify this full or partial absence. Notes that are vague and state that a student has been at an appointment, family issues or transport must now be regarded as unjustified full or partial absences.

SCHOOL FEES
This year has seen the introduction across the Archdiocese of a new fee account instalment system and I would like to give families some information about how the CEO expects the system to work.

All known set fees for the year are calculated and billed as an annual fee in Term 1 to give families a better idea of their cost and to assist them with budgeting. Only excursions/ incursions and any miscellaneous items are omitted as their costs are unknown until nearer the time they occur. These costs will be billed in later terms.

Families were given the option to pay their annual fees in instalments either 20 fortnightly payments, 10 monthly payments, one payment annually in Term 1 or at the end of Terms 1, 2 & 3 (which is the default option for those that do not make an alternate choice). Whichever option you chose you were provided with the instalment amounts and a due date for each one; these details appear in boxes at the bottom of your statement. As we now have a very diverse mix of different due dates we no longer send out overdue fee reminder statements. It is therefore very important that you keep track of your fee due dates.

You will not get a reminder until the next Term’s account is received. Any unpaid (overdue) fees will be automatically added to the first instalment date after issue of the statement. The future instalment amounts shown on your Term 1 account will now be amended to reflect the extra Term items (i.e. excursions etc). Please adjust any repayment arrangements that you have put in place.

TIP: Use internet banking to set up regular BPay payments on or near the fee due dates.

It is never too late to request a change to your instalment schedule, so please feel free to contact me at Brigidine.

TAS SHOW
I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank all those parents and businesses who supported our recent TAS Show, whether by the provision of a gift toward the raffle or by donating their time on the evening, your support and assistance on and for the evening is commendable and as always much appreciated.

ART EXHIBITION
The creativity and imagination of our students are once again going to be showcased. The girls’ artworks will be displayed over three days. We will once again be requiring Year 12 parents to volunteer their services during the show for purposes of raffle ticket sales and beverage service. If you are able to assist on 25 August please contact May Chidiac on 9398 6710 or via email to may.chidiac@syd.catholic.edu.au

THE SENTRAL PARENT PORTAL

At the end of Term 2, with the approach of the Parent/Teacher Interviews, many parents realised they had not registered for our Parent Portal on Sentral. There are a few points to bear in mind below regarding the Sentral Parent Portal. Please register if you have not already done so, in order to access information and to avoid any delays in accessing the PT booking link later this semester.

1. The web page with Sentral Parent Portal’s Registration and Account Holder Login links may be accessed via “Sentral Portal” at the very top of our Website or in the Parents Menu “Sentral System Portal.” On that page is some further information about Sentral and the way your login operates.

2. Some parents have registered but not then entered the family key they were sent. This means the secure link to your daughter’s details has not been made. Please enter the family key you were sent if you have not done this linking. If you have already linked, your daughter’s photo or a graphic (for new students) will be visible and you click on that to access the Sentral dashboard for information relating to her.

3. When you have access to the dashboard, the large DASHBOARD link there gives access to other information like academic reports posted on line, NAPLAN results and the like. When Parent Teacher Booking Sessions are active you can also book interviews by linking from the dashboard.

4. Essentials:
   - The email address you use for registration becomes your Sentral username. You set up your own password at registration.
   - Once you have registered and received the College’s registration approval email, please use the Account Holder link to login to Sentral and then input the family key.
   - The family key links you to the information relating to your daughter(s) once it has been input.
   - Keep your password for Sentral and the family key safely recorded somewhere as both are important for your successful Sentral access. You will be continually using your password. The family key may need re-input if you have to re-register owing to an email address change.

5. For help with family key re-issue, registration and password reset – please contact Michael Rawlings michael.rawlings@syd.catholic.edu.au by email.

Year 12 Chemistry @ Sydney University.

The Year 12 Chemistry classes attended USYD on Tuesday 21st July. The girls participated in a series of hands-on experiments and instrumental demonstrations. The opportunity to see inside the university’s laboratories is an education in itself. The consensus from the girls was that the excursion was a valuable learning experience.
Some of the year 12 Chemistry girls geared up and ready for the day.

Finally, they are at work!

The Science department sends best wishes to the year 12 girls who will be sitting for their trials over the next two weeks.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The English Department wishes Ms Bassil a very happy maternity leave. Ms Bassil’s smiling and conscientious approach to her classes will be much missed by all her students, especially Year 11. Nevertheless, her classes are in the safe hands of Mr Talay.

During Term 2, the Year 12 Extension 1 class attended the Sydney Theatre Company’s production of Endgame, by Samuel Beckett, as part of their study of After the Bomb. This elective focuses upon the literature and culture of the Cold War, and includes Waiting for Godot, also by Beckett as a key text. The play has all the uncomfortable hallmarks of the literature of this period – long periods of physical and psychological anxiety.

This term we are looking forward to the completion of some wonderfully engaging and challenging Extension 2 projects by our Year 12 students: Kristie Chandra, Natalie Chandra, Abbey Dorian, Niina Lagesen and Miriam Mercer. These will be complete by 14 August and are the culmination of 10 months of incredibly hard work. Congratulations to these creative young women!

The Department is also looking forward to the return of Poetry in Action to perform for Year 7 and 9. Poetry in Action will also take 12 English Standard through a performance of their wonderful production on the poetry of Wilfred Owen, as part of the course’s Close Study.

Thoughtful Food:

Thoughtful Food is a TAS and Social Justice program, which allows the Year 12 students who attend Night Patrol to hand food out, that has been cooked by Year 7 – 11 students, to Sydney’s homeless.

The snacks produced use healthy and delicious ingredients. This program educates students on how we take our food for granted and with a little bit of collaboration we can help those who are in need.

It is an amazing feeling spending my free time after school helping those who aren’t as fortunate.

Some of the girls have said:

“I feel so grateful after providing people with tasty and healthy food”

“This is an amazing opportunity to help people in a fun and safe environment”.

Overall this is a once in a lifetime opportunity for junior girls to have an impact on other people’s lives.

Thanks to Ms Alley and Ms Chaloner for giving their time so this program can go ahead and of course a huge thanks to the TAS department for providing us the resources to take part in this!

By Year 10 Thoughtful Food participants.
You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give. – Kahlil Gibran

During the school break I had the privilege of exploring the wonderful country that is Timor Leste. The organisation, Palms Australia, arranged a 12 day cross-cultural encounter that I shared with a small group of primary and secondary CEO teachers. Timor Leste is a small country with a small population of just over 1 million people, but only 58.6% of the population are literate, life expectancy is only 67 years, only 1800 people have internet access and corporal punishment is still prevalent in schools.

We arrived in the hot and dusty capital, Dili, and spent the following day exploring the Chega! and Resistance museums and the Santa Cruz cemetery which highlight Timor Leste’s long and tumultuous struggle for independence, first against the Portuguese and then the Indonesians. We spent the rest of the encounter visiting Palms Global Volunteers around the country and gaining an insight into the different development projects that they are involved in. We visited a primary school in Dili, where Australian volunteers are working hard to help the local teachers implement an updated curriculum, and the Community Learning Centre in Balibo that is working to provide support and mentoring for the Community English language program. Encouragement House in Maliana does tremendous work to support young people in their English language skills who are otherwise unable to go to school for reasons such as poverty and the unruly terrain and remoteness that makes travel near impossible. It also provides a place of refuge for young people who are victims of abuse.

The highlight of the encounter would have to be the overnight homestay we experienced in the small fishing village, Atabae. We were greeted by the local students at the town library which had its beginnings with the help of a Palms volunteer. There is no senior high school in Atabae, so only the students whose families have the means to send them to neighbouring towns are able to attend. The joy that the children expressed when we arrived was overwhelming. They were so eager to practice their English with us and were so proud to be able to accommodate and share their achievements with us.

Palms Australia’s focus is to provide volunteers who are willing to immerse themselves in a new culture, live simply and engage in mutually enriching and challenging relationships where projects are requested by locals and sustained by locals. For more enquiries about the work done by Palms Australia in Timor Leste, as well as in other countries and to see what you can do to help, please visit the website for more information http://www.palms.org.au/
